

Functional View Analysis

Functional View Analysis

This document provides a comprehensive analysis of the functional view for the business process described.

Overview

The functional view outlines the main components and operations involved in the business process. This includes:

- Contract Management
- Order Processing
- Supplier Coordination
- Shipment and Logistics
- Financial Transactions

Detailed Analysis

Contract Management

- Initiation and approval of contracts between customers and suppliers.
- Monitoring and countersigning of contracts.

Order Processing

- Selection of commodities.
- Determination of quantities and specifications.

Supplier Coordination

- Selection of appropriate suppliers.
- Finalization of shipment details.

Shipment and Logistics

- Nomination of vessels and shipment tracking.
- Coordination with shipping teams and monitoring of loading processes.

Financial Transactions

- Generation and verification of invoices.
- Coordination with financial institutions and management of payment processes.